Invitation

I am delighted to invite you come to join our 9th International Summer School (ISS) 2014.

CNU ISS has pursued harmony in both globalization and passionate youth as a major goal for the last 8 years. This program is carefully designed for those students who wish to spend their summer abroad meeting new friends with an unparalleled opportunity for personal growth and discovery. This program will also provide a platform for diverse cultural backgrounds to exchange their opinions and experiences about Korean daily life.

ISS will definitely give you a new perspective on the world. You will meet other students from all over the world with whom you will share unforgettable memories and form long-term friendships. During ISS, you will learn the basics of Korean language, as well as take part in activities in and off campus for three weeks. Through this opportunity, we expect participants to develop teamwork skills and also your self-confidence at being representative of your country.

Application for this program is now open for the 2014 International Summer School. Do not hesitate to catch this amazing chance. We are very hoping to see you at CNU.

Lee, Jin-sook, Ph.D.
Vice President for International Affairs
